

Creative Bucks County

Join us as we explore the work of some of the many creative genius' who have called Bucks County home. Bucks County has been home to Henry Mercer, Edward Redfield, Pearl Buck, James Michener, Oscar Hammerstein, Stephen Sondheim and many more. See how Mercer tiles are hand crafted in Doylestown at the Moravian Tile Works. Stop at Byers' Choice to watch artisans create collectible carolers. Travel to Sellersville to see how the Lizzie High dolls have evolved the last 20 years. Tour Nobel and Pulitzer Prize winning author Pearl S. Buck's farmhouse home still filled with her personal furnishings. See a replica of the office of novelist James A. Michener, a large collection of New Hope artists work plus special exhibits at the James A. Michener Art Museum in Doylestown. Enjoy a lively musical presentation.

Linger over a served lunch at the Washington House in Sellersville. Try your luck at the wonderful buffet and the slot machines at Philadelphia Park Casino. Stroll through Earl Jamison's magnificent shopping creation and gardens called Peddler's Village. See a show at one of our theaters.

Come and experience Creative Bucks County.
